

ENGLAND'S AIR DEFENCES ARE INCREASING IN EFFICIENCY-- French Take Another Large Section of the Enemy's Position Near Verdun

FRENCH MAKE NEW GAINS TO NORTH OF AVOUCOURT

Large Part of Strong Position There Captured
Germans Win Footing in Hau-court Village.

(By Times Special Cable.)

Paris, April 6.—A desperate all-night struggle around Verdun resulted in substantial gains for the French west of the River Meuse, while east of that stream German attacks on French positions were repulsed. At one point, along the Avocourt-Bethincourt line, however, it is admitted that the Germans succeeded in penetrating French positions.

The French gain was scored north of Avocourt, northwest of Verdun, where, in the course of the engagement that began yesterday afternoon and continued throughout the night, General Petain's troops succeeded in capturing a large portion of the position known as Bois Carre, or "Square woods."

The German attacks to the northeast of the city were directed against the lines north of the Gaillette woods, where Paris reported a French gain yesterday. The efforts of the Germans to regain the lost ground are declared to have been futile.

THE OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

Paris, April 6, 2:10 p.m.—The War Office announced this afternoon capture by the French of a large portion of the position north of Avocourt, known as Bois Carre, or "Square woods." This ground was captured in the course of fighting which went on all of yesterday afternoon and last night in the Verdun region west of the Meuse, on the Avocourt-Bethincourt line.

At one point along the Avocourt-Bethincourt line the Germans succeeded in penetrating French positions.

Two attacks were made by German troops against French positions north of Gaillette woods, but they were without result.

LAST NIGHT'S ZEPPELIN RAIDER MET A TERRIFIC RECEPTION

Was Surrounded by a Terrible Hall of Shrapnel and Shell During Entire Visit.

(By Times Special Cable.)

London, April 6.—The increasing effectiveness of England's anti-aircraft defences was demonstrated last night, as the single Zeppelin, which undertook the fifth raid in six days, was prevented from penetrating the north coast, and was forced to flee, after the briefest visit of the kind yet known.

WUNDS AGAIN FORCED TO PAUSE BEFORE VERDUN TO RECUPERATE

Losses This Week Greater Than Almost Any Time Since the Attack Developed.

(By Times Special Cable.)

London, April 6.—(New York Times Cable.)—The assault has spent itself, and the Germans have been forced to pause and recuperate from their losses.

Although the Germans have adopted a more extreme form of trench warfare, they have decided on one essential principle: they have decided that they will not allow the French to capture a single inch of ground.

ALLIES SINK A GERMAN SUB.

(By Times Special Cable.)

Paris, April 5, 8:52 p.m.—A German submarine was sunk today by a squadron of French and British warships, the Ministry of Marine announced tonight. The crew of the submarine was captured.

The French navy's beauty alone will be a great asset to the fleet.

SUSSEX CRIME PREMEDITATED

Such is Washington's Word as to Recent Brutality.

Torpedo Lurked About Waiting to Sink Rescuers.

(By Times Special Wire.)

Washington, April 6.—With the entire submarine situation hanging upon Germany's attitude in regard to the Sussex and other recent marine disasters, Administration officials today awaited with intense interest a response from the Berlin Foreign Office to inquiries made by Ambassador Gerard.

The accumulation of evidence indicating that German submarines were responsible for the disasters is understood to have convinced officials that it is up to the Berlin Government to demonstrate the value of promises given the United States.

The report that the submarine was torpedoed was the subject of a conference at the White House last night between President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing.

TEUTON TRADE SCHEME FAILS

(By Times Special Cable.)

London, April 4.—The German plan for establishing a customs union and an economic federation between the central powers and their allies has failed through the opposition of the United States.

NEW TAXES ARE WELL RECEIVED

(By Times Special Cable.)

London, April 5.—(New York Times Cable.)—The proposals in the biggest budget in history, which was described yesterday in the House of Commons by Reginald McKenna, Chancellor of the Exchequer, are in general surprisingly well received.

Both the trades and the general public have taken the new taxes philosophically. The tax on amusements, especially on moving picture establishments, is considered justifiable.

MORE SUPPORT Recruiting League's Stand Receives Endorsement.

Further replies endorsing the memorial of the Hamilton Recruiting League, which is to be presented to Sir H. L. Borden on April 11, have been received from the following places: Collingwood, Brockville, Godfrich, Woodstock, Port Hope, St. Catharines, Simcoe, Peterborough and Brantford.

The recruiting league's stand is in fine health, strong and active, except that his left arm is still stiff, although improving. He was one of the best of police officers and feels confident of his ability to serve the city.

BACK ON FORCE Ex-P. C. Finlayson Has Put in Application.

Ex-P. C. Finlayson, who was one of the first to respond to his employer's call, who was distinguished for bravery in the field of battle, and who has been declared fit to return to work, has put in an application for reinstatement as a police officer.

CONTRILLERS UNABLE TO AGREE ON SITE FOR CAMP

So Mayor Authorizes Them to Go to Toronto and Talk With Col. Mewburn

Military Officers Favor West End But Cost is $10,000 More Than East End One.

Practically the whole session of the controllers today was spent in discussing the two sites in view for the big military camp to be built during the summer—the McKittick tract and the Rosedale survey.

The controllers today were unable to agree on a site for the camp.

CHAPTER I.

"Get out, you silly jester, or the elephant will squash you!" shouted the boys in the butcher's cart.

Every raindrop was a spear which rolled into the gutter and became liquid mud. The young gentleman from Queen Elizabeth's school, dressed in a blue serge suit, a white shirt and a white tie, was sitting in the cart, looking down at his feet, conscious that no water dared so after them, through the mud and excited crowd. The more aspirant scholars slipped up lamp-posts in order to gain a glimpse of the approaching circus. A lone adventurous student slipped a butcher-boy with a cleaver and crowded into his cart among gory joints of mutton and beef. Others perched shivering on the basin of Bedford Market fountain, and refused to descend, although their teeth chattered like castanets; for a circus comes but once a year and is a solemn festival. Even the prowling Salvationists did not lodge in disquieting thoughts, but made haste to strangers with a disinterested benediction intended to make them believe that the Salvationists were sincere. The student recalled to a sense of his more active mission in life by the jangle of approaching circus bells. The Salvationist produced his corn, knelt down outside the door of the adjoining parlour and prayed with motions of reluctance for the miserable sinners drifting to Halleluam within.

"Get out, you silly jester, or the elephant will squash you!" shouted the boys in the butcher's cart. "Here's the elephant coming. He'll squash you!"

The Salvationist prayed for the sinners. "He's a snail for it," said a navy in the public house irresolutely raising his pint of beer.

The mahout used language which would have mortified even Old Ajax.

"You take care of that crowd," he cried, indignantly, "instead of attending to a man of my condition."

"You'd better control yourself, even though you can't control your elephant," suggested the chief recruiting officer.

"I'll look in on you as I come back now. Purchase, lean on my horse, grow, or you'll upset my horse," he said, looking at the crowd.

With some difficulty Purchase was placed in the cart; where, on the other, noticed, sat on the counter, and with a careless air was patting the mahout's head.

Uttarwa, April 5.—A memorandum announcing the work of the Department of Militia in connection with the war during the past twelve months was presented to Parliament to-day by Sir Robert Borden as follows:

"The total number of men of account had been $120,000,000 of which $118,000,000 had been expended in Canada and $14,000,000 in England. Of the total expenditures approximately $82,000,000 were for pay allowances, rations, etc. The total amount expended in separation allowance is given as $9,340,000. At the present time the monthly expenditure is a little over $15,000,000, or considerably more than half a million per day."

The encumbrance covers reports from the chief or the General Staff, the Quartermaster General, the Master-General of Ordnance, the Paymaster-General and the Director of Comptrols, are included. About a hundred orders-in-council deals with the most interesting of all.

Perhaps the most interesting information given is that Canada had actually at the front on March 18 1915, 100,000 men, 100,000 horses and three complete divisions. Also England or in passage to England that date there.

Canada there were 154,000 troops; the West Indies there were the 35th Canadian Brigade, the 1st Canadian Army of the Canadian Royal Garrison artillery at St. Lucia, while with the 1st Canadian Army in the Caribbean there were three Canadian general hospitals and three Canadian medical depots. The Canadian Government's effective amounting to 240,000 men were only for the purpose of actually being sent to the Caribbean. On Garrison staff, etc. Canada, including the permanent staff, was 100,000 men. It was a present time, to complete the full authorized army of half a million men, the Canadian Government must also be recruited.

Of the 41,000 troops in England, and the 10,000 troops in the United States, the training division under Brigadier-General J. C. Macdonald, while an training division staff are at the disposal of Brigadier-General Lord Brooke. It is intended, as soon as the war permits, to conduct a large scale training in Canada at camps for summer months, at London, at Ottawa, at Petawawa, with the 1st Canadian Army, at Vancouver.

According to Berlin advice, the Canadian Government will have a broad new explanation to offer to the United States, that the Sussex was sunk by a German torpedo. The correspondent wires:

"The United States Department has taken a disposition to regard the Sussex as a transport. While it is not yet confirmed, the information received would indicate that the ship was a transport. It is not known if the ship was frequently used as a transport for troops from France to England. It is well known to the submarine commander, who might have been the one to sink the ship, that it was a transport, and that it was carrying soldiers aboard, in which event it was a legitimate target. It is not known if non-combatants were aboard."

BRITISH IN VICTORY IN MESOPOTAMIA

Strong Turkish Position Below Kut-el-Amara Captured by the Forces.

LAST BIG BARRIER

Makes Relief of Besieged Garrison a Matter of Much Less Difficulty.

London, April 5.—A strong victory for the British over the Turks on the Tigris below Kut-el-Amara has been reported by General Lake, in command of the British forces there. The Turkish entrenched position at Umm-el-Hanah was attacked and carried at 5 o'clock this morning by the Tigris corps. General Lake telegraphed, and the operations are proceeding satisfactorily.

The capture of Umm-el-Hanah, which is on the Tigris about 20 miles downstream from Kut-el-Amara, is the most important news from this theatre in some time, and is regarded here as giving promise of the early relief of General Townshend's force, which has been besieged in Kut-el-Amara since the first week in December.

Umm-el-Hanah is a strong position at an important bend of the river, and is said to be the last serious barrier to the relief of General Townshend, although two or three lines of strong positions are still to be overcome before Kut-el-Amara is reached. Next to the Daclics expedition the operations in Mesopotamia have been a subject on which the Government has been more criticised than any other, not only on account of the breakdown in the hospital arrangements, but on the question of responsibility for the advance, with insufficient forces, toward Bagdad.

As in the case of the Dardanelles, the critics accused the Ministers at some of insisting on the expedition against the advice of the military authorities in India and on the spot. The accusation, however, met with an unqualified contradiction. Austen Chamberlain, Secretary for India, in the House of Commons yesterday. Mr. Chamberlain declared that the advance on Bagdad was undertaken on the advice of the commander-in-chief in Mesopotamia.

THE CAMPAIGN REVIEWED.

The official Gazette prints today the official despatch from Sir John Nixon, until recently in general command of the Mesopotamia campaign.

"The operations from April to September furnished a remarkable record of amphibious warfare, owing to the fact that the floods were the highest in thirty years. After the dispersal of hostile Arabs in Persian Arabistan by Gen. Gorringe, Gen. Townshend went up the Tigris, with a combined naval and military force, and, with gunboats, rafts and barges, with guns mounted, and improved floating hospitals.

Umm-el-Hanah was captured on May 31, with few casualties. There were several naval fights, and an enemy gunboat was sunk. Success was completed on June 2 and 140 prisoners were taken.

Gen. Gorringe, after a difficult passage of the Haplugh channel of the Euphrates, necessitating halting of the boats, and the military force, heavy fighting, in which the navy was prominent, occupied the important post of Nasiriyah on June 22. A thousand prisoners were taken. In addition to guns, rifles and ammunition, the casualties were under six hundred.

The troops then were transferred to the Tigris.

"Gen. Townshend attacked a strong Turkish force, forming a entrenched position along the river, near Kut-el-Amara. The fighting was continued after dark, and on September 28, the Turks retreating to Ctesiphon. Our losses were 1,832; the enemy's, 4,600."

Gen. Nixon praises Gen. Townshend, Gorringe and Brig-Gen. Delyon. He says that the British and Indian troops "displayed a gallantry and devotion worthy of the highest traditions of the service."

The heat, lack of water and navigation difficulties, he said, were the chief hardships to be overcome.

THE SENATE.

Tariff Changes Discussed—New Committee Decided On.

Ottawa, April 5.—The Senate today advanced a stage the tariff bills relating to changes in duties on various commodities. Mr. Loughheed, Government leader, stated that the committee on tariff changes had decided to report on all bills for the purpose of providing relief to the people, and to reduce duties on articles of general consumption.

Senator Borden, Liberal leader, expressed the opinion that during recent years the tariff had been raised to a level which was not justified by the needs of the country.

After considerable discussion the Senate decided to refer the tariff bills to a committee of inquiry, to be composed of members of both Houses, to report on the necessity for changes in the tariff.

THE PROVINCES CAN CONTROL

Hon. Doherty Says They Can Stop Liquor Manufacture.

New Clause Accepted—Committee Adopts One.

Ottawa, April 5.—Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, gave Parliament today his personal judgment that any Canadian Province could itself prohibit the manufacture of intoxicants within its boundaries if that course were necessary to make effective the prohibition of the sale or of liquor. This, the Minister of Justice said, was the effect of a Privy Council decision.

Mr. J. G. Turritt thought the Minister's decision would have effect. Many of the Provinces, he was satisfied, would prohibit the manufacture if they believed they had the power to do so.

The House spent several hours in the consideration of the Minister's bill to supplement Provincial legislation. At the end of the deliberations one clause was passed, and progress was reported. There were some outspoken comments as to the measure. Mr. Doherty said that his measure was a side-steps bill to get rid of the prohibition of Dominion-wide prohibition.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley wanted to know whether the law would be effective against employees on the Intercolonial Railway, a question which raised a local intricate and technical argument as to whether the law could be enforced against employees of a government railway.

Hon. Mr. Doherty maintained that the Government could be guilty of an offence only if its agents were found to be guilty, while Hon. Dr. Pugsley maintained that it should be provided that the manager and employees of the Intercolonial were on the same basis in regard to the enforcement of the act as were managers and employees of other railways. The Minister of Justice finally took the position that the duty of the Dominion Parliament was complete while the law, its administration would rest with the Provinces.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley reported that the Government had apparently no interest in enforcing prohibition. He believed that the law could be enforced only by the appointment of proper officials.

Mr. H. Stevens moved a new clause, which was accepted by the House. It provided that in the event of any distiller or brewer violating the Provincial laws he shall be liable to a prohibition of his license for three months, and for a second offence to suspension for six months. A third offence will cancel the license.

Hugh Guthrie welcomed this amendment, but only as a half measure. The majority of the people of the Province, he said, were not satisfied with the present law. He proposed that the manufacture of liquor be prohibited in the Provinces.

Hon. Mr. Doherty replied that the bill did not affect the manufacture of liquor in the Provinces, but was intended to make Dominion prohibition effective by preventing interference from the outside. The Minister thought it would be unwise for the Government to make Dominion prohibition legislation of a local character.

The first clause was then adopted, and a parallel clause was adopted, to resume consideration of the bill at a later stage.

OCEAN TO OCEAN.

Through Trains Via N. T. R. and G. T. P. Soon.

Ottawa, April 5.—Hon. Dr. R. A. Doherty, Minister of Railways, told Parliament today that the Government was considering the possibility of running through trains between the National Transcontinental and the Grand Trunk Pacific railways.

The Minister pointed out that the National Transcontinental and the Grand Trunk Pacific railways were both owned by the Government, and that it was possible to run through trains between them.

He said that the Government was considering the possibility of running through trains between the National Transcontinental and the Grand Trunk Pacific railways, and that it was possible to run through trains between them.

An exceptional car—built to meet an exacting demand

The six cylinder motor—in its perfected state—is the engineer's answer to the demand of the automobile enthusiast—the extremist if you will.

The perfected six cylinder motor is capable of a faster pick-up and a smoother flow of power than is possible in a four.

But not all sizes are superior to all fours.

We build fours that are superior to many sizes.

And our only purpose in building a six is to satisfy with Overland finally that extremist demand for well light miraculous motor performance.

The Overland Six is a big, roomy, luxurious, seven passenger car with a motor of unusual power, smoothness and flexibility.

But the price is only $1600—much lower than any other car of its size and class.

Such a low price for such a superlative car is possible only because the Overland Six is part of a huge production.

In fact Overland production is easily double that of any other builder of cars of like class.

So in buying the Overland Six you not only secure a car of very unusual performance—

But you get the advantage of the economies possible only in the production of cars on so vast a scale.

While the prices of other sizes are advancing, and those recently announced are on a higher price level, the Overland prices remain at $1600.

It is so clearly dominant value among sizes of its size and class, that the demand is taxing even our large capacity.

Today is an Overland Six opportunity which can hardly last. See us now and book your order.

As to Statements of T. & N. O. Expenditures.

Ontario Government Agrees to Their Proposal.

Toronto, April 5.—Detailed statements of expenditure proposed by the Timiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway will be presented to the Ontario Legislature.

Announcement to this effect by the Provincial Treasurer yesterday is the sequel to persistent agitation on the part of the Opposition. The Liberals in the Legislature have been contending for two or three sessions for itemized statements of T. & N. O. expenditures to the general estimates submitted to the House, and the fight was continued yesterday. The announcement, made by Hon. Mr. McNair, followed the introduction of a motion by Mr. Hugh Munro, of Glenora, to the effect that estimates for all expenditures on the T. & N. O. Thousands of
New Words

WAR, the Arts, and Sciences have brought into use so many new words that all dictionaries published BEFORE this year are OUT-OF-DATE.

Education to-day is not confined to yesterday's languages and activities. You must know TO-DAY's English. Learn it from The Universities Dictionary.

The Hamilton Times

This paper, devoted to public welfare, fighting for better education, seeking to give men and women, boys and girls, more chances for self-advancement, urges its readers to hurry so, each will get a copy of The New Universities Dictionary while they last.
